

Reportable Conduct Scheme Policy

INTRODUCTION

The protection of children and young persons is the responsibility of everyone who works at Scotch College including its staff, contractors, parents and volunteers. We all share responsibility for promoting the wellbeing and safety of children.

The Reportable Conduct Scheme is administered by the Commission for Children and Young People. The Scheme provides for the reporting to the Commission of allegations of reportable conduct, or misconduct that may involve reportable conduct, committed by employees (including volunteers, contractors and office holders) within or connected to Scotch College.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to ensure that Scotch College complies with its obligations under the Reportable Conduct Scheme.

The Principal is responsible for ensuring compliance by Scotch College with its obligations under the Reportable Conduct Scheme. In particular, the Principal will ensure that Scotch College has in place:

- a system for preventing the commission of reportable conduct by an employee of the School within the course of his or her employment;
- a system for enabling any person, including employees of the School, to notify the Principal of a reportable allegation of which the person becomes aware, or to notify the Chairman of Council of an allegation involving the Principal;
- a system for investigating and responding to a reportable allegation against an employee of the School.

Everyone involved in Scotch College has a role to play, and may disclose an allegation of reportable conduct involving an employee to the Commission or to the Principal.

REPORTABLE ALLEGATION

Any person who has any information that leads him/her to form a reasonable belief that an employee of Scotch College has committed:

- (a) reportable conduct; or
 - (b) misconduct that may involve reportable conduct, is encouraged to report such information to the Principal:
- in writing addressed to the Principal in a sealed envelope marked Private and confidential and delivered to the School's reception or to the Principal's office

Telephone: (03) 8601 5281
email: childsafestandards@ccyp.vic.gov.au

A report may be made whether or not the conduct or misconduct is alleged to have occurred within the course of the employee's employment with Scotch College.

PREVENTING REPORTABLE CONDUCT FROM OCCURRING

Scotch College has policies and practices that take a preventative approach to keeping children safe, and for the early identification and response to risks of child abuse in the School's physical and online environment. Such policies and practices include:

Child Safe Code of Conduct

Child Protection Commitment Statement

Child Protection and Obligations of Reporting Policy/Procedures

PROCEDURES FOR RESPONDING TO AND REPORTING SUSPECTED CHILD ABUSE

Scotch College has procedures for responding to and reporting suspected abuse of a child currently in its care. Scotch College also has practices and programs that support, encourage and enable School staff, parents and children to understand, identify, discuss and report child safety matters. Such policies and practices include:

Child Protection and Obligations of Reporting Policy/Procedures

Staff Issue Resolution Policy and Procedure

Complaints Resolution Policy

REPORTABLE ALLEGATION INVESTIGATION

As soon as practicable after becoming aware of a reportable allegation against an employee, the Principal will commence an investigation, which may include appointing an independent investigator. Depending on the nature of the allegation, the Principal may follow the processes set out in the other School policies noted above.

Generally, the person appointed to conduct the investigation will decide on the appropriate process for the investigation, taking into account the principles of natural justice, and will advise the parties of such matters.

The investigator will, as soon as practicable:

- conduct an investigation into the allegation;
- conduct interviews of relevant persons and seek any further information he/she deems necessary;
- provide to the Principal a confidential report of his/her findings in relation to the allegation against the employee; and
- if requested, make recommendations about what disciplinary or other action should be taken (if any).

Reportable Conduct Scheme Policy

The Principal will consider the findings, and recommendations if any, and determine what further action, if any, to take in relation to the allegations.

If an allegation involves a possible criminal offence, the Principal will first obtain clearance from Victoria Police before beginning an investigation.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE PRINCIPAL

The Principal is responsible for notifying the Commission of a reportable allegation in line with the Reportable Conduct Scheme and for investigating such allegations and providing the findings to the Commission.

If the Principal becomes aware of a reportable allegation against an employee of Scotch College he will notify the Commission in writing of the following:

Within 3 business days after becoming aware of the allegation	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• the name and date of birth (if known) of the employee involved• whether Victoria Police has been contacted• contact details for the School and the Principal
