

Behavioural expectations established by the boys...

After considering feedback from Tutor Groups and Form Groups in Years 7 to 12, the Boys' Voice Committee agreed upon the following expectations that boys have of themselves and their teachers:

- Respect for self

What values do I set myself?

To be honest, kind and caring

To show care for myself and to be responsible

To try my best, work hard and be positive

- Respect for others

What can we reasonably expect of ourselves?

To respect and celebrate others' experiences, needs, challenges and unique qualities

To be friendly and helpful

To respect our learning environment

- Respect for teachers

What can we reasonably expect of our teachers?

They are caring

They are passionate about what they teach and are organised

They create an environment which allows boys to actively learn

They are encouraging

They know the boys in their classes

What teachers should expect of me?

I try my best and be attentive

I am organised

I am polite

I contribute to the learning environment

I am honest

- Respect for the environment

How do we respect our environment?

We respect all of our environment, so it can be enjoyed by all

We keep our school clean and litter free

We use equipment properly

We respect other students' property

- Respect for learning

How can I make a positive contribution to the learning experience of others?

I allow others to work, contribute and engage in their classes

I respect different ways of learning

I am a good class mate

I help others and I am supportive.
